Notice of Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Case -- No Proof of Claim Deadline

12/15

For the debtors listed above, a case has been filed under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. An order for relief has been entered.

This notice has important information about the case for creditors, debtors, and trustees, including information about the meeting of creditors and deadlines. Read both pages carefully.

The filing of the case imposed an automatic stay against most collection activities. This means that creditors generally may not take action to collect debts from the debtors or the debtors' property. For example, while the stay is in effect, creditors cannot sue, garnish wages, assert a deficiency, repossess property, or otherwise try to collect from the debtors. Creditors cannot demand repayment from debtors by mail, phone, or otherwise. Creditors who violate the stay can be required to pay actual and punitive damages and attorney's fees. Under certain circumstances, the stay may be limited to 30 days or not exist at all, although debtors can ask the court to extend or impose a stay.

The debtors are seeking a discharge. Creditors who assert that the debtors are not entitled to a discharge of any debts or who want to have a particular debt excepted from discharge may be required to file a complaint in the bankruptcy clerk's office within the deadlines specified in this notice. (See line 9 for more information.)

To protect your rights, consult an attorney. All documents filed in the case may be inspected at the bankruptcy clerk's office at the address listed below or through PACER (Public Access to Court Electronic Records at www.pacer.gov).

The staff of the bankruptcy clerk's office cannot give legal advice.

To help creditors correctly identify debtors, debtors submit full Social Security or Individual Taxpayer Identification Numbers, which may appear on a version of this notice. However, the full numbers must not appear on any document filed with the court.

Do not file this notice with any proof of claim or other filing in the case. Do not include more than the last four digits of a Social Security or Individual Taxpayer Identification Number in any document, including attachments, that you file with the court.

	Deadline to object to exemptions: The law permits debtors to keep certain property as exempt. If you believe that the law does not authorize an exemption claimed, you may file an objection.	Filing deadline: 30 days after the conclusion of the meeting of creditors
10. Proof of claim	No property appears to be available to pay creditors. Therefore, please do not file a proof of claim now. If it later appears that assets are available to pay creditors, the clerk will send you another notice telling you that you may file a proof of claim and stating the deadline.
Please do not file a proof of claim unless you receive a notice to do so.
11. Creditors with a foreign address	If you are a creditor receiving a notice mailed to a foreign address, you may file a motion asking the court to extend the deadlines in this notice. Consult an attorney familiar with United States bankruptcy law if you have any questions about your rights in this case.
12. Exempt property	The law allows debtors to keep certain property as exempt. Fully exempt property will not be sold and distributed to creditors. Debtors must file a list of property claimed as exempt. You may inspect that list at the bankruptcy clerk's office or online at www.pacer.gov . If you believe that the law does not authorize an exemption that the debtors claim, you may file an objection. The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive the objection by the deadline to object to exemptions in line 9.

FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

In re:

Anthony DePante
Debtor(s)

Bankruptcy Case No.: 19-24835-JAD
Chapter: 7

Whereas, Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 1007(c) requires an individual Debtor(s) to file a statement regarding completion of a course in personal financial management within 60 days after the first date set for the meeting of creditors under §341 of the Bankruptcy Code in a Chapter 7 case and,

Whereas, 11 U.S.C. § 727 (a)(11) states that the Court shall not grant a discharge unless the Debtor(s) completes an instructional course concerning personal financial management after filing the petition,

It is hereby ordered that this case shall be closed without entry of a discharge on the 75th day after the first date set for the meeting of creditors unless, within the 60 days after the first date set for the meeting of creditors, the Debtor(s) files a certification that the course in personal financial management described in 11 U.S.C. § 111 was completed. The certification must substantially conform to Official Form No. 423, Certification of Completion of Instructional Course Concerning Personal Financial Management. The Court may delay closing this case without further order or notice.

It is further ordered that a Debtor(s) who cannot meet the requirement of attending the personal financial management course due to incapacity, disability or active military duty in a military combat zone must file a motion with the court to be excused from attending the course within 60 days after first date set for the meeting of creditors. The case shall be closed without entry of a discharge if the Debtor(s) fails to timely file the motion.

Dated: December 23, 2019

Jeffery A. Deller
United States Bankruptcy Judge

REMINDER TO COUNSEL

Before filing: Generally, a person is ineligible to be a Debtor unless he/she has taken a credit counseling course within 180 days before filing a petition, and files the certificate. 11 U.S.C. Section 109(h)(1).

After filing: A Chapter 7 Debtor is ineligible for a discharge if he/she has not, within 60 days after the first date fixed for the 341 meeting, filed the certificate of having taken the personal financial management course (Official Form 423). 11 U.S.C. Section 727(a)(11) and Rule 1007(b)(7).
